INSTRUCTOR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I acknowledge that:

- Some of the materials used in the Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) Program are copyright.
- Betty Ann Kitchener and / or Anthony Francis Jorm are the copyright holders for the MHFA manual, the Instructor teaching notes and the powerpoint slides.
- These copyright materials cannot be reproduced in any form without the express written permission of Betty Ann Kitchener or Anthony Francis Jorm.
- Any use of these materials beyond fair dealing for the purpose of research or study is a breach of copyright.
- The materials and information used in the MHFA Program have been based on scientific research and findings.
- It is essential for the Program that its content not be amended or varied to include information that is not based on scientific research and findings as this will adversely affect the standing of the Program.
- Variations to the materials in the Program could possibly lead to adverse effects on course participants and that Betty Ann Kitchener and Anthony Francis Jorm will consider themselves indemnified from any actions resulting or arising from unauthorised variations to Program content.
- Betty Ann Kitchener and Anthony Francis Jorm do not give permission, as copyright holders, for the materials in the Program to be amended or varied without their joint or several express permission in writing.
- The Mental Health First Aid course is a 12 hour course. It is essential that the Program is conducted as a 12 hour course for participants to receive a certificate of attendance.
- To maintain accreditation Instructors must deliver at least three MHFA courses per year and attend the annual refresher course at least once every three years.
